A Play That Has Started Millions Talking

"Maud Muller on a summer's day
Raked the meadow sweet with hay."

"MAUD MULLER"

A pastoral, natural drama flavored with a breezy local color of New England life, and permeated with the soft, scented atmosphere of the meadow lands describes "Maud Muller," which has had many successful seasons in days gone by, and which, owing to its past popularity, the great artistic merit has been revived and is now making another long tour of the country with redoubled success. It is a play full of pathos and humor, appealing to the thoughtful, and lovers of comedy alike, and is aided by beautiful scenery, pretty costumes and splendid cast of players. This pretty drama is an attraction all will desire to see.

The New England pastoral play, "Maud Muller," which will be presented at Ogden Theater, has all the delicate humor, tender pathos and heart-reaching attributes which characterize "Shore Acres," "Way Down East," "Old Homestead" and other plays of the type; a sweet love story, told in a simple way. Handsome scenery and interpolated specialties add to the interest.

A play with a heart steady, tender, sympathetic, romantic, yet consistent, is "Maud Muller" owing to its past great popularity is being revived this season.
